Hortus Botanicus Amsterdam - anno 1638

GENERAL Terms & Conditions applying to photo and/or film shoots at the Hortus Amsterdam

These terms and conditions apply to all forms of photo shoots, e.g. occasional photography (weddings, engagements etc.), amateur shoots (instagram, study projects), and professional commercial shoots. All photo shoots must be booked in advance. When booking a photo shoot in the Hortus, the client declares to agree with the following conditions. The Hortus is therefore allowed, should one of these conditions be violated according to the Hortus, to cancel the photo shoot or to stop it immediately and possibly request the client to leave the Hortus premises.

1. Photo shoots are only possible within the regular opening times of the Hortus Botanicus Amsterdam. The Hortus is open as a museum 7 days a week for public from 10 - 17 hours.
2. The client is familiar with the general terms and conditions for visitors to the Hortus and will act accordingly.
3. Greenhouses or garden areas cannot be closed to regular public by the client.
4. Changing rooms can be booked separately in advance if available. It is not allowed to change clothings in the greenhouses or in the garden.
5. The client will stay on the paths. It is not allowed for models or crew to move between the plants and / or in the beds. Also, no material (tripods, light sources, cables) may be placed in the beds between the plants.
6. The client is aware of the vulnerability of the plant collection and will act accordingly. Any damage caused, will be 100% reimbursed by the client.
7. Plants and objects in the garden and greenhouses, being property of the Hortus, may not be moved by the client.
8. The client must follow instructions from Hortus employees who communicate on behalf of the Hortus.
9. The client is responsible not to hinder, bother or in any other way cause nuisance to the other visitors.
10. The client bears the responsibility to not picture or frame other visitors in a recognizable way and is responsible for any violations that may arise here.
11. The Hortus closes at 17.00, at that moment the client must also be able to leave and leave everything empty and tidy again.
12. The client is in possession of a valid ticket for a photoshoot in the Hortus and any additional entrance tickets for persons.
